REVELATION

"How Golf Is Like My Christian Life!"

I played for the first time in the annual CCC Golf Tournament on September 26, 2010. I thank God for achieving both of my simple goals for the day. First, I did not hurt anyone with one of my wild shots. Second, I had fun!

I would like to thank Molly and everyone who helped organize this event and dinner. I would also like to thank my teammates, John Yu and Rev. Brad Van Sent, who were so patient and encouraging. From our first hole, it became clear to them that with me as their teammate, we had no chance of winning!

Over the past few weeks I went to the driving range to prepare for the tournament. I had not been on a golf course for about 5 years and that last outing was not pretty! I basically had to pick up my ball on over half the holes to avoid holding up my group.

But since I have never had a real golf lesson I ended up simply practicing my mistakes over and over. I actually got worse! I was trying to swing too hard and I managed to strain my shoulder.

Life lesson #1 - Experience without good information and training can often result in making the same mistakes over and over with little or no improvement.

I appreciate Tom Fong coming out to the driving range with me a few days before the tournament to give me some help with my swing. His simple and clear instructions helped me understand the basics of a correct stance, grip, and swing. I now have the basic information and training to help improve my golf swing. However, I still struggled quite a bit during our tournament.

Life lesson #2 - Knowing the right thing to do and being able to do it are two separate things!

Tom was a very good teacher and greatly helped me to understand what I needed to do to improve my golf swing. But I will need to practice what he shared with me. Head knowledge and life knowledge are connected but they are two separate things.

Our relationship with God requires good information and training. We must hear, read, and study God's Word to learn more of who God really is, how much He loves us, and what His will and purpose is for our lives.

But this head knowledge must then be put into practice. We must apply God's Word by faith. It is the practice of God's Word that will help us to grow in our relationship with God and help us experience and share His love.

"Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says."
(James 1:22)

And let's remember, even golf pros hit bad shots once in awhile. No one is perfect. But the key is consistency. As we learn and practice we can become more consistent in our golf swing, and more importantly, in our Christian lives.

CHURCH NEWS

In case you missed it; our very own Kiana Lee (age 11) was featured in a recent Pocket News article calling her a Pocket pitching phenomenon.

When she was 5, she started playing tee ball with Pocket Little League. At 7, she moved on to softball. By 8, she knew this was the sport for her. When she was 9, she joined a competitive team.

Her natural talent allows her to play all positions but she really shines on the pitching mound. She earned the MVP award this summer when she helped her team win the state championship. Her team, Mitzuno All-American, went on to become one of the top ten in the nation in her division.

Keep your eye on her; she plans on playing in high school and perhaps beyond....Way to go Kiana!

Website Update

www.cccsac.net

How are you accessing our website? Have you created a Favorites Tab for our website on your browser? Another way is through our CCC Weekly Updates. If you have an e-mail registered in our church directory, you should be receiving weekly notices of all the newest additions to the website. This includes weekly reminders of up-and-coming events, Bulletin Announcements, and active links to Sermon Fill-in's, Recorded Sermons, and Worship sets as well. If you are not getting these weekly updates or know of somebody you think might enjoy being included in our Weekly Updates, please send an e-mail request to the church office at ccc95822@yahoo.com to be added to the CCC Weekly E-mailing List.

There have also been several new blog entries added to the website since the last Revelation. These include four entries from Pastor Louis including: Lorrie Kimura surgery went well!, Praise the Lord for the youth camping trip to Tahoe this past weekend!, Lorrie Kimura recovering at home, and Cabrillo Elementary School!

As always, we encourage you to contribute to our church website. The more people who add replies, the more views these entries will receive, and then more of our members and others might pause to think about issues closer to the heart of God. It is our hope that the CCC website will help increase our appreciation of how awesome our God is and testify to the reality of Him in our lives.

⁸Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things. - Philippians 4:8 (New International Version)

Again, please participate in our website. We hope your increased involvement will be a blessing to you and others.
